NEWS OF WEST SIDE

Joseph Rafool Has Two Arabians Arrested
For False Pretenses.

VERY PLEASANT LAWN PARTY

Given by Miss Louise Lutz, of Tenth Street—Those Who Were Present. Sir Knights of Pleasure Will Resume in September—Keyser Avenue People Want Water—Other News Notes and Personal Mention.

Joseph Rafool, the proprietor of a small store on Jackson street, procured warrants for the arrest of two Arabians, M. Bistany and Fred Melk, on the charge of false pretenses. These men entered Rafool's junk shop a few days ago and purchased some articles, agreeing to pay for them within an appointed time.

The men failed to respond and Constable John Davies arrested them. They were given a hearing yesterday afternoon before Alderman Owen D. John, of the Fourth ward. The case was settled by the men paying for the goods and costs of prosecution.

A LAWN PARTY.

Miss Louise Lutz Entertains Friends at Her Home.

The home of Miss Louise Lutz on Tenth street was tastefully decorated on Wednesday evening, the occasion being a party tendered her by a large number of her friends. The spacious lawn though prettily adorned with numerous plants and flowers, looked picturesquely indeed, with a brilliant array of Japanese lanterns. Games served to while away many hours of enjoyment. During the evening selections were rendered by the Marquette quartette with pleasing effect. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Among those present were Misses Belle Knowlton, Mary Judge, of Windsor, N. Y.; Ella Moser, Stella Terwilliger, Lizzie Carroll, Teiny Moore, Sadie Kaun, Lizzie and Kate Brown, of Philadelphia; Hattie F. Lutz, Carrie Smith, Alice Thomas, Nellie Jones, Mrs. Anselmy, Mrs. Louis Smith, and Will Davis, George Schoen, Robert Cooper, Harry Reinhardt, George Griffiths, John Wetling, Charles Mansfield, Elmer Meredith, Will Griffiths, Bert D. S. Elmer, Brokenshiller, both of Carbondale; Frank and Fred Smith, Thomas Davis, Lincoln Anselmy, Randolph Jones and Charles Bittenberg.

street, have been called to Philadelphia by the illness of their son.

The Sunday school of the Plymouth

Congregational church will picnic at Laurel Hill park today.

Miss Lora Green, of Bellevue street, has returned after a sojourn among friends at Hawley and Lake Ariel.

Mrs. F. A. Cramer and family, of Swat-dara street, have returned from a month's visit with friends in Moscow.

Alexander McEggart, the genial motorman of the Elyon street and Taylor line, has returned from Lake Winola.

Mrs. Marvies Storer and daughter

Edna, of Bradford, Pa., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Steenback, of Price

street.

Misses Minnie Smith and Jennie Williams, both of North Main avenue, will leave shortly for a visit with friends in Blighsburg.

The funeral of the late William H. Ellis, of Swatdara street, will occur today at 3 p. m. Interment will be made in the Washington street cemetery.

Union services of the West Side churches were held in the Jackson Street Baptist church last evening. The meeting was in charge of Rev. D. C. Hughes.

The funeral of Mrs. A. H. Rowe, of Schneil's court, who died at her home on Wednesday morning, will occur this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in the Forest

Hill cemetery. Deceased is survived by a husband and two small children.

A committee has been appointed by the members of the Plymouth Congregational church to arrange for the reception of Rev. Thomas Bell, who will assume the pastorate of the church on Sept. 8. The committee consists of the following: Elias

E. Evans, Richard Owens, S. D. Myers,

Mrs. W. J. Morgan and Misses Jennie

Lewis, Nellie Hughes and Lizzie A. Evans.

The reception will be tendered on Wednesday evening, Sept. 12.

The Red Stars of Garfield avenue

challenge any club under 17 years in the city to play ball at any time or place. The following is the personnel of the club:

Catcher, H. Brown; pitcher, R. Paff; short stop, T. Hopkins; first baseman, M. Kelly;

second baseman, D. Howell; third base-

center fielder, John James; right fielder,

John Cammer; manager, John James.

The residents along Keyser avenue are anxious to get the city water pipes laid along that thoroughfare. The pipes have just been laid on Jackson street to the Twenty-first ward as far as the above

avenue and they are thinking of continuing them up the hill. It would be far more profitable if these pipes were to be extended out Keyser avenue. There are many more residences, and they should be considered. A little effort on the part of the citizens in the locality will undoubtedly procure that long felt want.

After summer joys have vanished the Sir Knights of Pleasure dancing club will be continued in Mear's hall. During the previous season this club was extremely popular, and had the largest membership of its kind in the city. They will re-open on the first Monday evening in September

under the most favorable circumstances.

Professor George Taylor will teach.

The following comprise the membership of the Sir Knights' club. George Oberdorfer,

Horace Costlett, George Frank, Charles

Warne, George Sampla, George Thomas

and Charles Keller.

Going to Middletown.

On Saturday Midway park on the Middletown-Goshen Traction company's line at Middletown, N. Y., will be opened and on the invitation of Merle J. Wightman, treasurer of the Traction company, a number of residents of Scranton will go to Middletown to attend the opening and to inspect the lines. A special train conveying them will leave this city at 6.30 Saturday morning, returning on Sunday at 7.55

a. m.

AT THE THEATERS.

George Thatcher's Minstrels and Farce Comedy company will present the new minstrel farce comedy, "About Gotham," at the Academy of Music as the opening attraction next Monday evening, Aug. 27. The play, in which the company is making features of minstrelsy, specialty and farce comedy are combined, is one of the happiest efforts in this direction that has yet been seen by the great-est things in its favor is that it has a clear, concise and well constructed story, in which the innumerable incidents and features follow each other with a satiating sequence. There are plenty of bright and catchy musical numbers, with good people to sing them, and, aided by an elegant array of graceful dancers, the whole ensemble moves with a dash and vigor that is refreshing.

"The Fencing Master," a comic opera in three acts, words by Harry B. Smith and music by Reginald K. Wright, was did attraction announced for Wednesday, Aug. 28 at the Academy of Music. The company engaged to present this work includes some of the best singers in New York. The cast includes Miss Dorothy Morton, who assumes the leading soprano role and is assisted by Miss Bertha Baylis, Miss Jennie Dickerson, Miss Marion Langdon, Miss Marion Langdon, A. M. Holbrook, C. S. Martin, H. B. Brockert and David Torrence. The chorus is large and well balanced. The scenery, costumes and properties used in the original metropolitan production are carried with
